

White flaggin'

(Claus Christensen/ Mikael Nordmark)

Theres a peace that passes understanding
Theres a calm in the middle of a storm
Theres an olive branch in the place where you surrender
Hands up, arms down
I'm white flaggin' now

It's not what you do
Not what you've done
It's not where you've been
Or what you become
It's this moment - that's it
The sweet spot of surrender
